

I would appreciate your consideration of the service provided by translator stations used by K-Love. They provide quality programming that is not available in our local. Most of the religious broadcasters provide mostly teaching and other non christian entertainment type programming. They also provide a broader distribution of local and regional events to the public. The service provide by K-Love is a valuable alternative to secular commercial radio and local religious broadcasters. Thank you for your consideration on this matter.